

I am opposed to any plans to override the strictness of New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law. This law has resulted in a dramatic drop in the number of unsolicited telemarketing calls and I do not want the Federal Government undoing a State Law that has proven to be so effective.